

Iyad Mohamed Elwishy

01024345097 \ Elwishy iyad99@gmail.com

Career Profile:

Motivated attorney with Over years of experience performing family law, probate, civil litigation and personal. Excels in litigation and acted as first chair attorney on three high-profile civil cases that were decided in our client's favor. Continuously engages in management duties overseeing other attorneys and office personnel.

Education:

B.A of Law, 2018

Faculty of Law, Ain-Shams University

Grade: good

Training & Courses:

- Course in English Communication program.
- Course in French.
- Training in Microsoft office ICDI (Excel- Word-Power Point)
- Course in (Adobe Design & QuarkXPress)

Skills:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills to aid in properly presenting positions,
- Arguing cases, and getting positive outcomes for clients.
- Strong ability to think critically and connect causal events with their effects to effectively prove liability in various types of claims.
- Strong negotiating skills that aid in presenting positions and getting favorable terms for clients.
- Clear understanding of federal, state, and local statutes, and the ability to determine applicable laws and case law for each individual situation.
- Deep understanding of human interaction and psychology to help glean information from clients and help, them be at ease in tense situations.

Work Experience:

➤ Attorney

(2019 – present)

- Acted as an advocate for clients, providing them with comprehensive legal counsel and defending their rights in a case-by-case basis.
- Conferred with clients and witnesses to determine the facts and supporting legal issues of claims.
- Created and implemented marketing strategies to bring in a greater client base.
- Advised clients regarding claim liability, business transactions, and their legal rights and obligations.
- Researched statutes and court decisions to build legal basis for hundreds of matters.
- Drafted court documents, including legal briefs, complaints, answers, counterclaims, motions in limine, and discovery responses and requests.
- Appeared in court on behalf of clients to resolve parking tickets, probate claims, and family law proceedings.
- Oversaw the gathering of documents and information for use throughout the discovery process.